DIGITAL PROCUREMENT FOR THE MODERN WORKFORCE

Data Forge Procurement, powered by Vroozi, is the digital and cloud-based procure-to-pay system which enables organisations to reduce costs, boost productivity, manage spend, and improve visibility.

Modern businesses need a solution that fits how their employees work without sacrificing speed, accuracy or control. Our user-friendly system delivers that by giving employees a platform they actually want to use.

The result: increased adoption and reduced maverick spend. Vroozi saves finance and procurement teams time and money – and pays for itself in six months.
